

Tächa Sounds & Images of the Interlaken-Jungfrau Region by Tächa – the Band, www.taecha.ch

Tächa is an expression of the Bernese Alps for alpine chough.

Tächa are four top musicians from the Swiss Jungfrau mountain region.

Ueli von Allmen: voice and guitar; Bruno Raemy: Swiss button accordion; Thomas Kupper: double bass, vocals; Pedi “Shanti” Sterchi: percussion, are all virtuoso musicians playing a well-balanced mix of Swiss Folk Music, Jazz and World Music. Tächa music isn't just great fun; there is also a spiritual quality to it that touches your soul. We would like to present you Tächa sounds & images, which have been created in cooperation with the photographer Jost von Allmen, who is an exceptional artist in his field. His multi-visual masterpieces in unison with Tächa music are telling stories from the Swiss mountains and touch you deeply. Listening to Tächa makes you forget your concerns of everyday life. Just lay back and enjoy.
